DENNIS ADLER MEETS WITH TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Becomes Entangled in Belt at Laundry, is Carried to Ceiling and Pinned Between it and Shaft—Leg and Arm Broken.

At about 9:30 o'clock this morning Dennis Adler, who works at the Jet White Laundry, met with a terrible accident in which one of his legs and one arm were broken, and he narrowly escaped with his life. It seems that he was behind the washer, which stands near the wall, for the purpose of slipping on the belt to start the machinery, when in some way his clothing was caught in the belt and he was whirled to the ceiling, where he was wedged in between it and the shaft, stopping the machinery. It was some little time before he could be extricated from his perilous and painful position. Physicians were at once summoned, when it was discovered that his left leg and arm were broken, but it is thought that no internal injury was sustained. The doctors set and dressed his broken limbs and made him as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

BISHOP DENNY.

The preachers and laymen of the M. E. Church, South, in St. Louis, some time since invited Bishop Collins Denny, of Nashville, Tenn., to come to that city with a view of making St. Louis his home, one of the prominent laymen having offered him a home. In response to this invitation Bishop Denny came to Missouri and while here went to Fredericktown Wednesday of last week and preached there on that evening. He came to Farmington the following day and preached to a large and appreciative audience Thursday evening from Acts 13:22, "I have found David the son of Jesse a man after mine own heart." He very forcefully and eloquently showed how great a sinner David was, and then asked how, in view of these great sins, could David have been a man after God's own heart? He answered this by showing that David had the power to repent and also had the correct conception of God.

Few preachers have so profoundly impressed Farmington as did Bishop Denny, and his discourse was a spiritual treat to all who heard him. While here he was entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Court and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Pipkin.

Bishop Denny was born in Winchester, Va. He graduated from Princeton University in 1870; entered Baltimore Conference in 1880, and visited Asiatic Missions by Episcopal appointment in 1886-7. In 1889-91 he was Chaplain of the University of Virginia, and professor of mental and moral science in Vanderbilt University from 1891 to 1910, when he was elected Bishop of the M. E. Church, South.

HUNGARIAN PARTRIDGES.

Mr. E. M. Laakman received by express last Saturday some Hungarian partridges from State Game Warden Tolerton. They were sent here by Mr. J. E. McCormick to be turned loose on the farm of Mr. Ames, about two miles east of town. They are of the quail family, but are considerably larger than the American quail.

Judge J. S. Clay reports the following sales of real estate: House and two acres of land in New Offenberg, Ste. Genevieve county, to Barth Bowman for $500; and 40.17 acres of land near Hazel Run to W. M. Crumpton for $400.

Stockmen should keep in mind the date of the public sale of high class registered jacks and jennetts by W. F. Schade at Jackson Mo., on February 14th. It may pay you well to attend this sale.

MISSIONARY JUBILEE.

The C. W. B. M. of the Christian Church have been interested for some time in the Jubilee of the National Society. They were fortunate in being given the honor of entertaining two of the most prominent workers in the Missionary cause, Miss Hearne of Kentucky and Miss Moore of Kansas. A reception was given Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. R. M. Talbert to which all the women members of the Christian Church and a certain number from each of the other churches were invited. Misses Hearne and Moore are both young women, attractive in person and delightfully entertaining and convincing in their talks. Both gave short talks in the afternoon, and Misses Dillard and Noland sang and Miss Bessie Cover played. Punch was served in the dining room by Misses Day, Swink, Taaffe and Nations. The receiving line consisted of Mrs. R. M. Talbert, Miss Hearne, Mrs. Houchins, Miss Moore and Mrs. Clay. During the afternoon both Miss Hearne and Miss Moore made short talks concerning their work. The whole affair was delightfully planned and very much enjoyed by the large number who were present.

Monday evening, at the Christian Church, Mrs. W. N. Fleming presided. After reading, singing and prayer, she introduced Miss Hearne to the congregation. Miss Hearne gave a most interesting account of her work in Mexico, just across the Rio Grande. The condition of the poor of Mexico was graphically described, their poverty and ignorance keeping them in the greatest degradation. The natives are anxious for an education and the missionaries who go there find their first work in the establishment of a school. She mentioned one section of Mexico where the work of the natives was dressing fleas, which were mounted on card boards, to be sold to tourists. The whole talk made a decided impression on the audience.

Miss Moore of Kansas followed and her talk was of the mountain people with whom she labored, in the mountain region of Virginia and Tennessee. To hear her talk was to listen to the reading of Craddock's and Fox's tales of the mountains, for the same people were there, but in life, sad, earnest, wanting to learn of the better things of life. Miss Moore told of the home life, pathetic as to the condition of the women. There was one wife of sixteen, the mother of two children, whose nineteen-year-old husband was in the penitentiary for life for killing his comrade while under the influence of moonshine whiskey. The people crave education, and when a little school was opened they flocked to it, bringing all sorts and kinds of books. One was a geography whose folded map showed all the section west of the Mississippi as unoccupied country. Miss Moore wanted to show the people where her State, Kansas, was, and it was nowhere on the map. The whole talk was replete with interest, for it gave our people an insight into conditions found by the home missionaries.

The sessions Tuesday morning, presided over by Mrs. Houchins, and Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Burks, were fully as interesting as the other meetings, and no doubt much good has been accomplished.

Stockholder's Meeting.

YOUNG PEOPLE GETTING

READY FOR GOOD PLAY.

A company of our young people are preparing to give the three-act comedy "All a Mistake" within a few weeks at the Opera House, for the benefit of the Baptist Church. The date and cast of characters will be given later. The parts have all been assigned and they are rehearsing regularly under the direction of Miss Stella Schaefer, instructor of expression at Carleton. Full orchestra, composed of some of our best home talent, will furnish music.

Aside from the entertainment that will be afforded by the play and the orchestra there is to be an "Aesthetic Drill," also by home talent. Home talent plays have always been popular with Farmington audiences, and we predict "All a Mistake" will prove no exception to the rule. Watch local papers for date.

LEAGUE MEETING.

The American Woman's League met with Mrs. M. P. Cayce Wednesday and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon. An interesting feature of the meeting was a talk by Mrs. Helen Mead of Carleton College about the wonderful art advantages of the League at University City, where she had spent some delightful weeks. A dainty collation was served in the dining room. Two new members were added to the list. The local league is enthusiastic over its proposed work.

No matter what you want in the jewelry line you can always find it at Tetley's in Farmington.

TROUBLE IN LEAD BELT.

One Killed, Two Wounded—Bad Feeling Against Foreigners Among American Miners.

An assault was made last Monday night on the Hungarians, Russians and Italians in company houses at Flat River, and in the row one Russian named Jake Hallatonditch was killed, another Russian and an American named Powell were wounded. Several arrests have been made.

The companies have been bringing in a large number of foreigners lately to work in the mines, and this is resented by the American miners, which has resulted in much bad feeling and a restless and uneasy condition in the Lead Belt. Since the trouble Monday night a number of the foreigners have packed up and left.

Have your watch repaired—Tetley's is the place.
